In uncertain times,
Australia needs
a plan for real action. But Labor has lost its way...

More Government Debt

with a budget deficit of $40.8 billion, and even more reckless and wasteful spending

More financial stress on families with more pressure on interest rates, cuts to child care support and no real action to tackle rising living costs

Risking jobs, investment and our superannuation with big new taxes on the mining industry

Broken promises and more waste with a $1 billion border security blowout and another $1 billion to patch-up its home insulation disaster

Labor. Big Spending. Big Debts. No plan for the future.
